

With Abu Dhabi ranked as the richest city in the world, according to Fortune magazine – hosting the show in the Emirate gives exhibitors unparalleled access to high net worth individuals as well as members of the region's royal families

The Abu Dhabi International Jewellery and Watch Show bring true luxury and stylish sophistication to the capital from 14 to 18 October 2009. The exhibition is a unique event and a must-see for people wanting to keep at the cutting edge of the latest trends in jewellery and watches.

The internationally recognised exhibition – held at the Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre – is a platform for over 130 exhibitors from the region and beyond to showcase their collections of the finest jewellery and watches. This year's exhibitors come from over 20 countries: Brazil, US, Italy, UK, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, India, Hong Kong, Turkey, Jordan, KSA, Bahrain, Lebanon, UAE and more. JWS 2009 will also feature dedicated Italian and Brazilian pavilions.

This show provides visitors the opportunity to view an extensive collection of the top quality jewellery and watches sourced from all over the world. Diamond, platinum and gold jewellery will be on display – as well as loose stones. Antique jewellery, fashion and designer timepieces and jewellery will all be on show in an elite branded environment. JWS is known as a launch-pad for the latest trends and a number of items are expected to make their debut at this year's exhibition.

When?

Wednesday, 14 to Sunday, 18 October from 4pm to 10pm daily

Where?

Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre, Halls 11 and 12 The 17th edition of the annual event, organised by REED Exhibitions, attracts end-consumers from across the GCC, some of whom

Sparkling sophistication

Thursday, 08 October 2009 00:00

include private collectors, as well as wholesalers and retailers. Visitor tickets are priced at AED20 and children under the age of 12 can attend the show for free. Tickets are available at the entrance to Halls 11 and 12 where the exhibition is held.