

Racing star Lightning McQueen and his long-suffering towtruck friend Mater return to the big screen in the sequel to Pixar's highly successful Cars. While McQueen competes in races around the world, Mater takes centre stage as a case of mistaken identity sees him unwittingly become an international superspy. Expect a large bonnet full of surprises, laughs and adventures as adrenaline-charged chase sequences explode on screen, without stopping to refuel. It looks like Pixar has done it again.

