

Translated as 'My Brother's Bride,' this film is a first time effort from writer and director Ali Abbas Zafar. Starring the beautiful Katrina Kaif, Imran Khan and Ali Zafar, the romantic comedy focuses on the love triangle that occurs when Kush (Khan) falls for the girl he has handpicked to marry his brother Luv (Zafar) – cue the wacky stunts and ridiculous plot twists. Despite that, this comedy does provide a few great laughs and has a decent soundtrack to match. If you're looking for a fun night out, this is a safe bet.

