

Five ways to a fun wardrobe this spring.

Manar Al Hinai brings us the latest in a new monthly column: A change in our wardrobe is something all fashionistas look forward to! Below are some of my favourite picks of next season.

Wacky prints

Monkeys at Prada and florals at Marni. A gamble? Maybe, but Miu Miu's floral platforms are definitely worth the risk.

Mix and don't match

Ladies, be daring! Several designers combined bold colors in one look on the catwalk. Green blazer, purple pants, and a blue shirt? Absolutely!

A boy's shirt

Look for one which adds generous proportions. Finish the look with a blazer and neon heels.

Trouser jeans

Last season's stiff and high-waisted trousers have been replaced by wide legs in flowing fabrics. Pair up with high heels and a fitted blouse to rock this style!

Platform wedges? Yes please!

There's nothing better to wear with all these seventies-influenced clothes than a pair of platform wedges. Seen at both Chanel's and Marc Jacobs' shows.
