

Ladies if you have not shopped for Eid yet, you'd better start spending, because with the end of summer sales, and Ramadan, there will barely be anything out there left. So what's new in Abu Dhabi town? Allow me to introduce you to the favorites on my shopping list:

Lovestruck by Vera Wang

It's fresh and attractive. Probably one of the best I have smelled so far. Grab your bottle today at your favorite beauty department

Clarins' new Daily Energizers

If you're thinking of trying a new range of skin care products, think no more. Wake up your skin with the daily energizing line by Clarins that targets dryness, oiliness, and dull skin. Does it get any better?

The Perfect Abaya or Kaftan

If you wear an abaya, Ramadan is probably the worse time to get one tailor made. No designer store will take an order till after Eid. The best solution? Buy a readymade from the runway abayas available at Grafika Boutique in Al Wahda Mall. Why not try a bright Kaftan while you're at it?

~~Product information for the perfume bottle and jar. The text is mostly illegible due to blurring and low resolution.~~