

In just one week's time, Al Forsan International Sports Resort will welcome 90 show horses as part of their mission to bring the best in international sporting events to the capital

The state-of-the-art sporting complex, which is located in Khalifa City A, has teamed up with the renowned Global Champions Tour and will bring some of the industry's most respected show riders to Abu Dhabi as they compete for a total prize fund of €400,000 for the Abu Dhabi Grand Prix.

The event will take place on 24th November and will run for three days offering spectators the very best in equestrian entertainment.

"With its extensive indoor and outdoor sand field training areas, their fully floodlit polo field and world class stables, Al Forsan International Sports Resort is the perfect partner," said GCT president and founder Jan Tops.

Tickets for the event cost AED 50 for adults and AED 30 for children. They are now available from the Abu Dhabi Hilton, the Baynouna Hilton and also from Al Forsan.
