

Special Care Centre's annual talent night on Friday 1st June was a roaring success, with kids of all ages expressing themselves and showcasing their talents through dance, drama and song. Children with special needs wowed the crowd with their performances.

